

Security Policy

Euroblast Middle East LLC (EME) management recognises its duties and obligations in relation to the security of its employees, customers, suppliers and members of the public and that effective management of risks contribute to good business performance. EME management is committed to:

- Providing for and maintaining the security of its employees whilst on or away from the company's premises and providing an environment where employees feel safe and free from risk.
- Taking practical steps to ensure that potential security risks are identified and suitable and effective preventative and control measures are implemented.
- Ensuring that all of our activities are carried out in full compliance with national regulations & guidelines.
- Maintaining the security of all property, including data and information (electronic or in hard form) pertaining to the company, its employees, customers.
- Providing employees with adequate education, training, guidance and in particular up to date information pertaining to levels of risk so that they are competent to carry out their duties in line with this policy.
- Developing other policies and procedures that give guidance to the EME management and employees relating to more specific risks or areas of activity.
- Demonstrating management commitment to this policy and effective security management thereby engendering a positive company culture.
- Investigating all incidents involving breaches or potential breaches of security in a positive blame-free way in order to identify root causes and corrective actions.

Management and project team have responsibilities for the implementation of the policy and must ensure that security matters are given adequate consideration in the planning and day-to-day supervision of work.

All employees and sub-contractors are expected to co-operate and assist in the implementation of this policy, whilst ensuring that their own activities, so far as reasonably practicable, are carried without risk to themselves or others.

The operation of this policy and associated procedures will be monitored and reviewed on a regular basis to ensure they remain current and applicable to EME activities.
